

President-Elect Trump: I'm Seriously Considering Dr. Ben Carson for HUD Secretary

One week ago, Dr. Ben Carson said he would prefer to serve President-elect Donald Trump by providing counsel from outside Washington, D.C.

Two days ago, he said he was giving it a second thought, and that if he was asked, he would serve the president-elect in any capacity requested. Just a few moments ago, Trump tweeted:

I am seriously considering Dr. Ben Carson as the head of HUD. I've gotten to know him well—he's a greatly talented person who loves people!

Charisma News will update this breaking story as more information comes to light.