

President Trump's Attorneys Release Video Showing Voter Fraud

President Donald J. Trump's legal team has shown video footage—for the first time—of how the voter fraud was accomplished during the Nov. 3 election. The group of onlookers, Georgia State senators and assembled media, was shocked.

The video reveals that at approximately 10:30 p.m. on election night, the media and Republican observers are told to leave for the night; the counting was over. The video shows them leaving the hall where ballots are being counted.

Shortly after they leave, a group of people return to the ballot counting machines and multiple suitcases, each containing an estimated 6,000 ballots, are brought out from under a table that has been covered all day, directly across from the counting machines.

With an average of 3,000 votes able to be counted per hour, with three counting machines, it is estimated that over the two hours when all observers were gone, 18,000 to 25,000 ballots were counted—depending on how many of the machines were in operation.

Four ballot-filled suitcases can be seen clearly being wheeled from their hiding place below the table, the only one in the hall with a large, black tablecloth.

At approximately 1 a.m., the frantic ballot inputting—which is against the law as the law requires all ballot counting to be done in front of witnesses—is completed, and the staff leaves, apparently unaware that cameras in the facility are recording their activities.

Added to over 96,000 ballots unable to be accounted for and another over 300,000 without a clear chain of custody, as well as the 30% Dominion software over-votes, the team led by former mayor and Trump attorney Rudy Giuliani clearly “caught them,” adding momentum to the president’s move toward a Jan. 20, 2021, inauguration.

As author Stephen Strang of God, Trump and COVID-19 writes of President Trump, “He is strong. He can’t be intimidated,” echoing the Scripture in Proverbs 16:9: “A man’s heart devises his way, but the Lord directs his steps.” {eo}
