

President Trump to the World Jewish Congress: 'Never Again'

Monday was Holocaust Remembrance Day, and although he was unable to attend in person, President Donald Trump marked the day by recording a special message for the Jewish World Congress, which had convened in New York City.

Watch the entire message in the video above. {eo}