

Press Through to Victory With God's Persistent Power

The enemy is bearing down hard against you, and you feel that you can't continue on. Now is not the time to lay your spiritual weapons down, but to pick up your shield of faith and fight all the harder. Remind yourself with the sword of the Spirit that our Lord is not uncaring; He understands what we are up against. Hebrews 4:15 identifies the reason why, "For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who was in every sense tempted like we are, yet without sin."

His healing Word declares that when I am weak, He remains strong in me (see 2 Cor. 12:10). Isaiah 40:29 affirms this promise, "He gives power to the faint, and to those who have no might He increases strength." Zechariah 4:6 educates me on how this is possible, "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the Lord of Hosts." He assures me in Philippians 4:13 that "I can do all things because of Christ who strengthens me." I can overcome this seemingly impossible moment in my life and heal, too, in Jesus' name.

Let's pray.

Father God, I come to you and confess that I feel weak, and doubt and unbelief seem to be getting the upper hand on me now. But I know that I know, this battle is not won in my own strength or power, but in Your victory for me. I thank You for Your promise that says yes, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." And I glory in Your supernatural strength to overcome this attack of the evil one.

In Your precious name I pray, amen. {eoa}

Becky Dvorak is a prophetic healing evangelist and the Destiny Image author of DARE to Believe, Greater Than Magic and The Healing Creed. Visit her at .

This article originally appeared at