

Prophecy: A Gold Rush of God's Glory Is Coming to the Nations

In a new article for the Elijah List, Ben Lim, senior pastor of His Way Life located in the Koreatown district of Los Angeles, writes that there is “so much gold to be discovered”—a reference to Isaiah 6:3—if only our eyes are trained in the right direction to find it.

“There is more of Jesus’ beauty to discover compared to the fleeting darkness of this age,” he wrote. “Where are our eyes turned to? Are we prone to searching for the dirt or are we intently searching for the gold?”

“We are in a season where the Lord is anointing us to be “Gold Diggers”! That’s right: Gold Diggers! People who know how to dig. People who know where to dig. People who have the tenacity to dig. People who are willing to dig and bring out the best of the worst situations!

“God is raising up people to be gold diggers. We must dig to find the mantles, the anointings, the things of God that are deep and hidden from the eyes of the public. Regular passersby may not see it, but because you’re a gold digger, you will recognize a gold mine when you see it.”

Lim also wrote that there is gold “waiting to be discovered” in the rivers of the Holy Spirit, and that where those rivers flow, the gold follows:

“Every state in our nation will be flooded with the rivers of God’s glory! The economy of heaven is bursting forth through our entire nation! America, get ready! The rivers are about to flood gold!”
