

Prophecy: America's Day of Reckoning Is Fast Approaching

Revelation in the News hosts Zach Drew and Sasha Volz believe America's day of reckoning is rapidly approaching.

"I take it very seriously what the Lord wants me to say," Drew says. "We're living in the end of this age. But that's just the thing, we need to always remember that it's this age. There is an age to come."

The two specifically discuss Michael Snyder's article "It Is Like a Nuclear Bomb Went off in the Prepping Community."
