

Prophecy: America Will Go Bankrupt, God Will Send Angels to Protect Christians

Prophet Thomas Otranto says God gave him dreams about what's coming regarding the election season and the COVID-19 coronavirus. He says God prepared Trump for an economic crash, which he is going to revive. But in the meantime, there will be chaos, and angels will protect Christians, he says.

"I had a dream, and God showed me what Trump went through," Otranto says. "He said Trump went through bankruptcy. And He said he was in debt, millions and millions of dollars in debt. He said, not only did he turn that around, but he got blessed. And that was part of his training and what God was doing because America is going to do the same thing. America is going to go through bankruptcy. ... God's using Trump. He has an anointing on him; He was called. ... The trade deals that he's been working is for the correction on the other side. ...

"But there's going to be a crash first, and we're going to go through some hardships. There's going to be a time of upheaval in America. There's going to be issues in the streets, and people that are going to get desperate to do desperate things. But don't worry; God's people are going to be protected. And He showed me that there [are] great warring angels that are going to be sent to protect us around our house. Even if people come try to get at you, there'll be like a wall that stops them."

The way the government is dealing with the economy right now by printing more money is not what God wants, Otranto says on the Adventures in the Spirit podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network.

"God said an unjust scale is an abomination," Otranto says.

“And for a government just to print money out of nothing and just push it out there is not God’s will. When you see a fiat currency where the government just thinks, Well, just print more money and we run in $20, $30 trillion dollars in debt, that’s not God’s will.”
