

Prophecy: Get Ready for an Upgrade

Elaine Tavolacci of Staten Island, N.Y., was enjoying her Thanksgiving evening when she said the Holy Spirit began giving her revelations about the year ahead.

She wrote about the word the Lord shared with her, noting that a “changing of the guard” is coming. Just as God raised up Donald Trump, she said, “many prophetic voices will be raised up from the pit to the palace.”

Tavolacci wrote for The Elijah List:

Then the Lord said: “Let your voice be heard.” There is a seat that is assigned to each one of us. When we find our seat, we will then rule and reign from that place. It is not about control or manipulation, but it is rightfully taking your kingdom position. In that place, there will be no division or competition, as we will understand our true identity.

It is not about self-promotion or trying to make a name for ourselves, but those who work together will speak as one voice and walk in one accord. The right hand will know what the left hand is doing as one hand washes the other. They will do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility they will value others above themselves. They will not be critical but will have compassion rather than judgment against those who don’t know the Lord.

True prophets of God as well as other prophetic voices should not be silenced or mocked. As the Scripture says, “Do not touch My anointed ones; and do no harm to my prophets” (Ps. 105:15). The Lord will speak not only from the podium but from the pit. He will speak through a donkey as well as a burning bush. Those who know the voice of the Lord will discern between the holy and the profane (Ezek. 44:23). They will not just speak with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit.

Death and life are in the power of the tongue; therefore, our words have creative power. The Holy Spirit will give voice to His word through His prophets in this hour. They shall decree a thing, and it shall be established. The Lord is going to raise up teachers who know the Word of God and will release revelations (treasures) from the Old Testament as well as the new ().

Healing and the Miraculous

Then He showed me some things concerning healing ministries and the miraculous. I began to read about those who were lead by a cloud by day and a fire by night, and they were fed manna which the Lord supplied daily. These included great men and women of faith in the Bible, such as Moses parting the Red Sea and Elijah being fed by ravens and raising the dead. Elisha received a double portion of Elijah's anointing, and God used him to perform miracles beyond human comprehension. Joshua commanded the sun to stand still, and it delayed going down for a full day.

In the same way, men and women will be used of God, and those who know their God will be strong and do exploits in this day. All creation is waiting in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed (Rom. 8:19).

Jesus is going to visit us and manifest His glory in extraordinary ways. He will speak to us in dreams and visions as well as through miracles, signs and wonders (Matt. 10:8). Many will be healed as the need is so great. Just as blind Bartimaeus cried out to Jesus to have mercy on him and Jesus replied, "Your faith has made you whole," we will have personal visitations and invitations just as Zacchaeus experienced when he climbed a sycamore tree to see Jesus walking by. Jesus saw him and said: "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must remain at your house" (Luke 19:5b). In this same way, Jesus is going to visit our homes, and many will experience personal encounters with Him.

Jesus tried to explain to His disciples about His death, resurrection and that He would not leave them alone but would send the Holy Spirit after He left (John 14). In verse 12, He said: "Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes in Me will do the works that I do also. And he will do greater works than these, because I am going to My Father." The Lord is about to release the "greater works" in the earth today.

In the book of Acts, as the disciples assembled together in the upper room, suddenly there was a sound from heaven as a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each one of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

There will be gatherings where believers will allow the Holy Spirit to have His way. They will not limit God or submit to the man-made religious traditions. The presence of God will fill the sanctuary, and His train will fill the temple.

There will be those who are carrying the presence of God, and His presence will be in them and surround them. People will be healed in that anointing in the same way Peter's shadow healed the sick. Just as God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul, so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them, we will once again see the eyes of the blind open, the deaf hear and the lepers healed.

"Just as it was prophesied in Joel 2:28 and Acts 17, "And it will be that, afterwards, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; then your sons and your daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions. says the Lord.

“He uncovers deep things out of darkness and brings the shadow of death to light” (Job 12:22).

You will also declare a matter, and it will be established unto you; and the light will shine upon your ways” (Job 22:28).

“‘Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes in Me will do the works that I do also. And he will do greater works than these, because I am going to My Father'” (John 14:12).”

“My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man’s wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God” (1 Cor. 2:4-5). {eoa}
