

Prophecy: 'God Is Saying This Is a Season to Break the Limitations'

Hakeem Collins says the body of Christ is in a unique and prophetic season right now.

On his new podcast, "Prophetic Breakthrough," he tells his listeners that God is moving them in a new direction. But in order for them to fully step into their calling, he says, God must first break the limitations.

"God said to tell many of you that He's breaking the limitations that have kept you from fulfilling what He has placed on your life. He is saying this is a season to break the limitations. Your decisions will shift you into the purpose and destiny, in the fullness that God has prepared for you, has already preordained and predestined for you. God is using the Holy Spirit in this season to be the divine coordinator and director to move you into the place you're supposed to with purpose and with a plan."
