

Prophecy: Moving From Mega to Epic

I heard the Lord say “epic.”

“We are moving into a season of epic. We’re moving from mega to epic.

“My promises are epic. My thoughts toward you are epic. My plans for you are epic. The enemy has come to erode your hope and your dreams and your future, but My restoration is epic.

“You’ve experienced epic loss, epic failure, epic grief and pain, but My Spirit will raise you up and send you forth with an epic agenda for my kingdom.

“Believe me. I am an epic God. I am the author of epic healings, epic miracles, epic signs and epic wonders. Don’t limit me with your faith but stretch your mind with My Word. Stretch your faith. Stretch into the epic I have called you to. Step into the epic.”

I heard the Lord say there will be epic testimonies of restoration in this season and examples of epic vindication in the lives of those who faced injustice and who felt insignificant.
