

Prophecy: One Thrust of This Sickle Will Bring Whole Households Into My Kingdom

In the Spirit, I saw heaven full of harvest sickles that were destined to be used by the angels, to be thrust into the earth for a sudden reaping of final harvest. What appeared to be the largest harvest sickle in heaven captivated the angels' attention as the Father decreed: "With one thrust of this sickle, whole households will be brought into My kingdom! Pick it up! There will be a 'thrusting' for those who are 'trusting' Me for their entire households!"

Right before the order to thrust this sickle into households, it appeared that all hell was coming against these families upon the earth—sickness, bondage and relationships that seemed impossible to ever be reconciled.

But these were the families upon which heaven was about to break loose. If full-blown attacks have been coming against your household, you are right on schedule. Keep trusting for the thrusting!

I sensed the Father saying, "Before I return to the earth, you will literally see whole-household salvation taking place. Megachurches have not been built large enough just for the household harvest that's about to come in! Have you noticed how many cities are building bigger stadiums this hour? Do you know why? It's not for sports. I started with Promise Keepers, drawing men into stadiums to awaken them to their wives. But now I am going to awaken whole families that will need larger facilities in which to worship Me."

Families Are Coming Home

Recently, I was traveling with a prayer partner as we drove past a housing development. I said to him, "Why are so many people building huge houses these days when only the husband and wife are living there? It doesn't make sense."

But I heard the Father say, "Bill, their families are coming home! Their children whom they haven't heard from or seen in years are about to come up the driveway. These houses were built for these last day family get-togethers who will experience church right in their homes. They will need a big house for some big parties—just for the prodigals who are on their way home!"

I saw angels descending with yellow gold ribbons, decorating the trees in the front yards of houses. Angels, who throw parties when the lost get rescued, were descending upon rooftops, declaring, "It's party time!—Thrust ye in the sickle!"

"By faith Noah, being divinely warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to save his family, by which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith" (Heb. 11:7). {eoa}
