

Prophecy: The Lid Is Being Lifted off the 'Toxic Waste Pit' of Washington

On Aug. 25, 2015, Elijah List publisher Steve Shultz repeated a word from April of that year in which he said the Holy Spirit revealed to him that "I am releasing the whistle-blowers throughout the earth! Prepare, for everything hidden will be revealed!"

Now, a new word shared by Johnny Enlow seems to suggest the fulfillment of Shultz's prophecy may soon be at hand. The prophetic author wrote the following for a message that was distributed to Elijah List readers on Wednesday:

Beginning April 4th and going until July 4th, we will see the next tsunami effect on our nation from the Trumpquake that God has redemptively unleashed onto our nation.

I saw a vision of a huge lid over a pit of toxic waste being lifted off—and the stench and fumes being quite intense. I believe this represents hidden darkness in government, in business, and in media being exposed as the preliminary step towards coming reformation to all three areas.

Pray! Your prayers and decrees in agreement with the immense army of angels assigned to this task will make this even more effective.

Hordes of hell have protected purveyors of high-level darkness involved in all sorts of tawdry acts and deeds and it is now time for that cover to be blown. It will not make for a pretty sight but it is a needed step in the overall throngs of reformation that are now gripping our nation.

In the name of Jesus: I decree that the protected darkness will now lose its cover. Mighty angels fight on with new intensity and new ferocity. Kingdom come! {eoa}
