

Prophecy: 'The Madman From the North Is Defeated'

The Elijah List published Wednesday morning a set of prophecies from Charles Shamp, Kim Clement and Denny Cramer that speak directly to the current situation with North Korea.

Shamp's, in particular, was very powerful. He wrote:

I have seen a great awakening coming to Korea; one that will shake the land from the south to the far north. I heard the Lord say, "Can a nation be awakened and united in a day?"

I said, "Only You truly know, Father."

Then the Lord said, "I am shaking the Korean government to break corruption that has been there for generations. Yes, this is My doing! For I see the land as one; this division will no longer stand in My sight. In My eyes there has never been a divide, only one land, one people and one nation in My hands.

"I will wipe away the military zone and will remove the one who divides and destroys from his throne. I will remove him by an unseen force, one that many will not believe. I will shake the land in the north to release a great awakening which has been prophesied by My prophets' lips for many generations. This awakening will come with great force, like lightning when it strikes and shakes the ground.

"There will be a rumbling in the north and the crumbling of buildings will be a sign of this crumbling kingdom. I will use an unusual force to break down the walls of division. Yes, the walls will fall along with the north kingdom.

"I will bring freedom to those who have been imprisoned, and they will finally see My Son shining bright. The light of My kingdom will radiate and displace all darkness that has been resting like a canopy for generations.

“The canopy of fear will be shaken out and replaced by My Spirit of peace and prosperity. I will use a power that is unseen, unthinkable and unbelievable by the minds of men to disarm the ‘madman’ of the north. It will shock many. The masses will see the thunder strike the ground and his kingdom come down.

“There have been strange things, these days, that have come into this madman’s dreams. His mind is only filled with destruction, deceit and darkness; he knows his time is short. He has forged a demonic plan, but he will fail to execute it to the fullest extent. For his twisted thinking has him creating a dark future for many, but I have set before him two stumbling blocks: justice and judgment. The mind of this man will fail, and his capacity to retain information and understanding will be his final downfall. A great mistake is to come and he will fall from his place of demonic rule.”

For the Lord says, “I have stripped him from his seat of authority among men and will lay waste his kingdom. He has said in his heart that he is a god. Has he not seen what I have done to those who lift themselves up to be gods? He will fall like lightning from the sky never to rise or be seen again.

“This fall will be so great that the land will shake. This shaking will cause the scales to crumble off of men’s eyes and they will see him weak and broken—as just a man. I will cause revival to sweep through the land, even through the capital of Pyongyang. I have released watcher angels to spy out the land for My hand is upon you Korea.”

The Lord spoke again, “Can a nation be brought to its knees in a day?”

I said, "You know My Father."

"I will bring this nation to its knees in repentance before Me and wipe away every trace of darkness that has been. My glory will come like a rushing mighty wind and fill the land with My divine grace to stand in My presence. The people will hear My command and march as one through the land.

"The people will arise and shine in the glory that I will give. I will use the people of this land who have been held captive for so long to break others free from the bondage of captivity. There will be a great missions movement that will come from this place, and I will send the people across the land to other nations and they will release deliverance.

"Yes, I have anointed you, Korea, to carry My gospel to the nations of the earth with supernatural miracles. The seeds of intercession from a previous generation will become righteous trees with leaves for the healing of the nations in this one.

"I speak to you, Korea: As one you will rise and you will run into every nation and carry My Son. This is your mandate and mission that will come. I speak to you, Korea: This day you will no longer be divided, but one with My Son!"

I've seen an arrow being shot from North Korea. The word of the Lord came unto me saying, "'As a madman who casts firebrands, arrows, and death' (Prov. 26:18) 'For the wicked bend their bow; they make ready their arrow on the string, that they may treacherously shoot the upright in heart' (Ps. 11:2), but 'There He broke the fiery arrows of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war' (Ps. 76:3). I decree and declare to the people of the east: 'You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day' (Ps. 91:5) as you are, 'Taking the shield of faith, with which you will be able to extinguish all the fiery arrows of the evil one' (Eph. 6:16), '...But God will suddenly shoot them with an arrow; they will be wounded” (Ps. 64:7). ‘I will heap misfortunes on them; I will use My arrows on them’ (Deut. 32:23).’”

It’s time to pray for North Korea!

Check out what Global Times, a Chinese newspaper with direct ties to the Communist Party, published in an editorial just last week:

We all know that North Korea’s sixth nuclear test is imminent, and various parties, especially China, are generally worried about this. If by any chance nuclear leakage or pollution incidents happen, the damage to northeast China’s environment will be catastrophic and irreversible.

China has a bottom line that it will protect at all costs, that is, the security and stability of northeast China. If the bottom line is touched, China will employ all means available including the military means to strike back.

By that time, it is not an issue of discussion whether China acquiesces in the US’ blows, but the Chinese People’s Liberation Army (PLA) will launch attacks on North Korean nuclear facilities on its own.

North Korean dictator Kim Jong-un’s Punggye-ri nuclear site is in the far north of the country, and test detonations there have been felt as seismic activity in the Chinese provinces of Liaoning and Jilin. A large-scale test and subsequent seismic activity could be devastating to structures in those regions, triggering a Chinese military response.

Liaoning's capital and largest city, Shenyang, is also home to Dongguan Church, which is also known as "the cradle of Christianity of the Koreans in China and in the Korean Peninsula." It is one of the oldest and largest Protestant Christian churches in northeastern China.

We're past the point of mere coincidences here. It would seem clear the Lord is at work, and His kingdom is advancing. {eoa}
