

Prophecy: Trump's Election Was the First Step, Next Is the Rise of the Prophet

In a new prophecy shared at The Elijah List, Stephen Powell, a revivalist minister who preaches the word under Steve Toliver of Abundance of Rain Ministries and Todd Bentley of Fresh Fire Ministries, says the election of Donald Trump and Mike Pence was the first step in what could lead to third Great Awakening in America.

The day after Trump's election, he said he saw "two peacocks come together as one mighty bird," which then took off into the air with "an incredible sound of power," while a large eagle landed on the ground at the same time. He then heard the voice of the Lord, booming from the heavens, say, "The Eagle has landed, and now the prophet will soar."

He said the eagle landing represented God securing the presidency in the Cyrus anointing of President-elect Donald Trump. He said the double portion peacock is "the double portion seer prophetic anointing being released in the nation right now."

"This anointing is for the nation, and is being offered to the nation, to be received like never before," he wrote. "Prophetic authority is rising in our land and will influence our government in increasing ways moving forward."

"God is offering Heaven's Intel to governments in the nations, including our own. This prophetic authority will pierce the news media establishment as well as the entertainment mountain like we've never seen. This will continue to weaken the antichrist spirit's hold on these establishments and thus the entire nation, even the mind of the nation."

He delved deeper into this prophecy, and then offered another regarding prophetic justice in America:

Those who would harm these little ones, says the Lord, it would be better for you to tie a millstone around your neck and throw yourself into the waters; for you will not be able to hide from My justice as I release it on the wings of the fear of the Lord in the days to come.

I will be a Terror to terror, a Force against evil, a hindrance to wickedness, a plague against those who would bring harm to these innocent ones, says the Lord. You will not find a place to hide, a place to cover yourself, in my renaissance of justice, if you harm My little ones, says the Lord.

You will flee across the sea from whence you came. You will find no shelter, no harbor for your wickedness in My nation of liberty and justice for all, says the Lord. You will run for I will chase you, because I will not rest day nor night, until all of My little ones are safe in this land, says the Lord.

My prophets will speak and expose your ways, and My arm of justice will be extended in this land, to take hold of the syndicates, to take hold of the rings, to take hold of the cartels, the traffickers—even the power brokers. Their evil shall not breathe. I will snuff out their funds, I will capture back their wealth, turn the flow of their riches for the poor, the widow and for those in need. I will send you back from whence you came. Watch and see, watch and see.
