

Prophet: Holy Spirit Says 'I Will Bring You to a Place of Breakthrough'

Prophetic minister Dr. Hakeem Collins shared a word that he believes the Lord spoke through him to specific people. He says it is a time of newness: Many will walk out of old seasons where they felt like they've reached a plateau creatively.

"‘These are the days where I shall give you,’ says the Spirit of the Lord, ‘new ideas and new concepts that will bring you to a place of breakthrough, for I have given you grace, and I’ve known you, and I’ve appointed you, and I have chosen you in this hour to do something radical and different in your generation.’ ...

"‘I will give you new discoveries of not only who you are, but your identity.’ For some of you, you felt like your family have held you back. But the Lord says, ‘I am breaking every excuse. And I’m breaking everything that will come to stifle and to try to minimize your momentum and to slow you up.’"

God will provide financially for some entrepreneurs, and He is breaking off strongholds like depression, Collins said on the "Prophetic Breakthrough" podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network.

"‘There is debt that is keeping you from moving in your purpose. There have been lies and slanders and false accusations, and there’s been unnecessary pressure that has been placed on many of you, but I am taking the pressure off you,’ says the Spirit of God, ‘for I released my prophetic word in your hearing today.’"

To hear more of Collins’ prophetic word, listen to the rest of the episode here.