

Prophet James Goll Makes Urgent Plea to Every Christian

James Goll contacted me early this morning with an urgent message for the church. Although he's not known for being political in nature, his spirit is stirred this Super Tuesday. He's sounding the alarm in the body of Christ, hoping and praying believers take a stand for righteousness.

"If you live in the United States of America and you are a registered voter, then I want to make an appeal to you. March 1st is called Super Tuesday in the hotly contested primary elections," he wrote on his Facebook page. "Whether you are engaged as a voter on this Tuesday or in other states in the next few weeks, please take a look at the picture I just posted."

One might think James posted an image of the U.S. Capitol building or the Supreme Court building or Congress Hall. Rather, he posted an image of the Lincoln Memorial.

"In these next few weeks, will this nation and the party of Lincoln vote for righteousness or fraud? Will we back track or move forward? Will be a nation divided or united? Righteous exalts a nation!" said Goll, president of Encounters Network. We are not voting only for the president, we are in the midst of the most serious and significant elections of my lifetime. What standards will rule the next Supreme Court? Will Congress be a lame puppet or have a true voice of conscience to submit a balanced budget? This election is about all three branches of this grand Republic!"

With that, Goll is asking believers to ask themselves these eight questions before they go to the polls and cast their vote:

1. Does this leader have true moral character or are they a fraud?
2. Does this leader consistently stand for life?
3. Does this leader walk their talk or just have a big talk?
4. Does this leader honor God and the Constitution of the United States of America?
5. Does this leader have a plan to lead us out of debt or take us deeper off the edge into oblivion?
6. Does this leader believe in the right to bear arms?
7. Will this leader protect this nation, defend our allies and align with God's covenant Word in support of Israel as a Jewish nation and the only true democracy in the Middle East?
8. Is this leader humble, tested by fire and someone I could tell my children I am proud of?

"I know I am voting for someone many people say cannot win on Super Tuesday. But I believe that one vote counts! I am voting for righteousness. I am putting works to my faith," Goll said. "This will be the first time I will drive myself in my own car since my surgery on February 1. I am sacrificing to vote. I will probably have on a back brace. I will be walking with a cane! But I am voting! Make a difference!"
