

Prophet: This Is Your Winning Season

This is your winning season! Often, we can talk ourselves out of walking in the favor and blessing that God intends for us.

A wrong mindset will hold you back from winning in life. I've seen different people walk through the same hard situations because they have allowed their mind to keep them in a negative cycle. As a son or daughter of God, you were called to win in every season.

In every season, I want to be successful in manifesting everything God calls me to do. I never allow a limiting mindset to hold me back from success! The reason God gives each of us a prophetic destiny is because He needs for us to manifest His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven. We can try to avoid completing the process because of fear or insecurity, but unless we decide to win, we will not accomplish our purpose and destiny.

Winners do not allow others to talk them out of anything God has said about them or what they can do with God! I believe that each of us has the opportunity to win in life; we just have to be determined to fight the good fight of faith in every area. Don't allow past failures to keep you from getting up and trying again. View yourself as a winner, and don't let failure have the last word! You have the power of the Holy Spirit, God is your Father and there is no way you can lose!

Psalm 32:8 says, "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye on you." God is promising here that He will stay close to you and instruct you. If you get instructions from God, you have no choice but to win!

Many of you just need one winning season to change everything for you. In athletic sports, the pre-game practice and disciplines are more important than anything that happens in the game. Good coaches will run drills with their teams in order to build their endurance so that when their opponent is tired, they will still be able to go strong.

God is the same way with us. Staying consistent in the place of prayer is where all our strength comes from. If you stay strong in the place of prayer, you will be able to move forward even when the enemy is coming against you. With God nothing is impossible.

My friends, this is a winning season for many people. Don't miss out on this season. Get rid of any limiting mindsets and get ready to win with God. {eoa}
