

Prophet: We're in a 50-Day Divine Reset From Passover Into Pentecost

We have entered into a 50-day divine reset from Passover into Pentecost.

In this strategic time in history, God is pushing the reset button.

Passing through this crucial period will require some intense chiropractic adjustments, including recalibration. Whatever is out of alignment will be challenged.

There will be a lot of pulling and stretching as we eventually move into a recovery phase and ultimately, if the Lord is willing, into one of the greatest times in recent history called the "Restoration of All Things" (see Acts 3:19-21).

These are extreme times. If we are not careful and prayerful, we could enter into a new war between the states where the West Coast wants one set of guidelines and the North East sector another. The Deep South, with its religious roots, could cry "foul" and demand that we take another look at the Bill of Rights.

It is vital that we seize the moment during this 50-day divine reset!

But through the lens of redemptive interpretation, let me share with you a few of the God Encounters I have recently received.

As It Was in the Days of Noah

In a vivid dream, I was given a scroll that became a blueprint on how to build an ark that would last throughout the storm. I appeared as Noah in the dream, leading my family in the construction of an ark of preservation.

As we completed our family ark, others joined us and wanted to build arks of protection and provision for their families as well.

As I gave my one blueprint away, it multiplied. At the close of the dream, I saw scores of arks being constructed that could stand the wind and the waves of the coming storm.

When I woke up out of the dream, a phrase was written upon my heart– “As it was in the days of Noah.”

You can be a Noah for your family and sphere of influence, creating a space of protection by being a carrier of His brilliant presence.

Will You Turn Aside?

During a recent spring evening, I felt compelled to go into the backyard of my home in Franklin, Tennessee, and simply worship and wait upon the Lord.

Whispers of clouds came floating by as I peered heavenward. As I paused in the silence, I was thrilled to see the beauty of the full moon.

His voice came to me, “I will speak in unusual ways in this season. I have been waiting for such a long time for My people to slow down in order to listen. I have many things to say in these days concerning new ways, new beginnings, fresh alignments, new wineskins for the new wine. I want to share My heart on seed time and harvest, sowing in tears and reaping with joy. Will you turn aside as Moses did? I AM there waiting.”

Passover Insights

On the evening of Passover, I was taken on a journey by the Holy Spirit into realms of God's eternal dwelling.

I entered into a creation room in our Father's house. The atmosphere was charged with an electric presence of God the Creator.

Brilliant ideas. Dreams. Witty inventions. Stunning colors. Divine intelligence.

A word captured my attention. A word permeated my being. "We are entering into a fresh creation season in the body of Christ. We are entering into a fresh creation season in the world."

The journey was over as quickly as it began. But ever since, I have been saturated with creative concepts, ideas and brilliant thinking.

It has left me musing, Is this what it is like to have the mind of Christ?

I am convinced that we are truly passing over from one era in history into a brand-new era.

One Question Remains

There is still one major question that looms before us all.

You cannot change the past. But you can choose how you will move forward.

Will you seize the moment?

Each of us must answer this question. And no one else can answer it for you.

Do not entertain the idea that you can merely glide into your bright tomorrow.

No! Seize the moment! Get in His face.

Get His blueprint for your family and your sphere of influence. Go into God's creation room for yourself and call forth divine intelligence.

Be the answer! Turn aside like Moses did, knowing I AM is waiting there.

You can seize the moment during this 50-day divine reset!
