

Prophets: Understanding This Will Move You Into Victorious Life in Christ

Dr. Sharon Mancha shares how to lean into God to find strength and grace to make it through difficult times. She proclaims that leaning into God fortifies our confidence to trust Him through the storms and to find His love, grace and guidance to overcome. She shares how to solicit, hear and trust the Holy Spirit to guide us through life's difficulties. In this episode, you will gather wisdom for strengthening your relationship with Christ (Prov. 18:10).

This episode of The Power of Intimacy With Christ is about how to lean into God for gaining the resources of God for surviving difficulty. She proclaims that when we run into God and learn how to place the weight of our lives on Him, we find strength to overcome, as well as the direction from the Holy Spirit to thrive in difficult times. Her teaching on intentional practices for pursuing God regardless of what hits our lives will situate us to receive the grace and wisdom of the godhead to going beyond merely surviving all obstacles. Mancha shares the importance of intimacy with Christ as the foundation for victorious living. This intentionality and personal discipline lead to an empowered life in Christ (Ps. 63).

Mancha states, "I know that relationship with God empowers the whole life and provides a solid foundation for understanding and successfully engaging the world around us." She sees that relationship with God is necessary to acquiring knowledge and power for living a victorious life in Christ.

Listen in to the entire episode of The Power of Intimacy With Christ for more of Mancha's powerful teaching on this topic.

{eoa}

Connect with Dr. Sharon Mancha at her website, and blog, Share this podcast with your Twitter followers using this link: .