

Prophetic Dream: 'I Am Releasing Audacious Exploits in My People's Hearts'

I had received an email from one of the prophetic fathers in America. He made a reference to me about being a next-generation apostolic leader on the East Coast. I didn't give it a lot of thought, but within a few days, I had a series of prophetic dreams about the East/West connection of glory in the United States and the implications for the nations. Here is one of the dreams:

I dreamt that I was in South Africa and ran into a next-generation prophet who has been stewarding strong revival and lives on the West Coast of the United States. We decided to go see a TV studio together. The studio was owned by a major media ministry pioneer from the U.S. who is based in North Carolina.

People were coming to the studio from the nations of the world. We realized on the way that it was my birthday! When we arrived there, the people were dressed like people from the '40s-'50s, and my dream looked like an old film. People were coming up to us and bringing me various gifts which all had prophetic symbolism.

As I have prayed over this dream, here is some of the prophetic revelation that has come to me. South Africa is a nation of great apostolic exploits and has a strong pioneering spirit. It was from South Africa that John G. Lake traveled to America to shake the Pacific Northwest with dramatic healing miracles. The Lord is releasing a fresh wave of healing and miracle ministries to a new generation of pioneers.

In this dream, there were three specific generations represented. The media pioneer whose studio we visited is in his 70s, I am in my 40s and the prophet in my dream is a Millennial. The Lord spoke clearly to me and said, "There is a joining of the generations! " The Lord is breathing on exploits in the heart of the Millennials, but there is a link with the other generations, and they will run together in revival and in unlocking miracle mantles.

The Father said to me, "I am releasing audacious exploits in the heart of my people. I'm causing old wells to collide with fresh outpourings."

I believe the Father is showing us an East/West glory corridor that is opening up. There is an announcement of reform and glory traveling east to west and west to east. There is a merge of the apostolic and prophetic along with powerful miracle ministry that gets the attention of nations.

The dream looked like and felt like the '40s and '50s. This represents the era of the great healing ministries, and in particular, one of the healing generals who pioneered televised healing meetings. As I prayed over this, it became clear to me that the Lord is revealing that media will play a central role in this coming move of glory. Miracles are going to be captured and released over the airwaves to announce God's power to the nations. There is a prophetic wind on power-filled media! Just as media was at the forefront of the voice of the healing movement, capturing the heart of a generation with the power of God, so shall the Lord use media in this hour to demonstrate His power and glory. {eoa}
