

Prophetic Insight: China-Backed Confederate Working to Destroy America

I am not a conspiracy prophet. I'm not a doom and gloom prophet. I still believe what the Lord told me in 2007—we're going to see a Third Great Awakening in America.

Unfortunately, before that happens it's going to grow darker—just as the Lord told me it would. The devil has sown seeds while we were sleeping. America's enemies are circling around a president who promised to drain the swamp. Their demonic agenda is to drown us in debt through economic warfare, starve us out with food supply interruptions and otherwise topple our democracy.

In 2003, I heard the Lord say, "Don't trust the bear." I didn't know what that meant when I first heard it, but I later discovered the bear is the symbol for Russia. Those words didn't make much natural sense to me back then because President George W. Bush and Russian President Vladimir Putin were fishing buddies. The Cold War was over. But the Holy Spirit always shows us things to come.

It doesn't take a prophet to see China is seeking world domination and considers America its biggest threat, but it would be foolish to think the communist nation would work alone. The Holy Spirit has shown me China is working with oppressive nations, including Russia and North Korea, to form a league to destroy America. Coronavirus is only one strategy in the cannon of the Communist-led confederate.
