

Prophetic Word: An Explosion Is Coming to the Body of Christ

The Lord recently began to talk to me about this upcoming month of July becoming a time of explosion. I see an explosion coming to so many in the body of Christ in this season.

Many will experience explosive growth, explosive encounters, explosive opportunities and favor. There will be breakthrough and miracles in the explosion. In the month of July, many will see an explosion of the power of God released in and through their lives!

Many times, in the natural, if a body of water is being held back by a dam, those in charge will explode the dam to release the water. I believe this is a prophetic picture of what will happen in July. The delays and strongholds that have been keeping back the power, favor, and will of God in many lives will explode and the rushing river of God will be released.

The things you have been praying and believing for in seasons past will suddenly be manifested. Suddenly hindrances and roadblocks will be immediately removed, and you will be able to move forward in this season. Get ready for the explosion to come and change everything!

When the explosion happens, you will step into extreme clarity and insight. God spoke to me just a few weeks before this about an atomic bomb of God's power, presence and glory that is about to sweep across the nations, bringing revival and awakening to so many. This divine explosion will be a catalyst to uproot and tear down anything that may be hindering the people of God with the intention to rebuild. What God is about to do in and through His people in this upcoming season, starting in July, will be something we've never seen before.

Everything you have put your hands to that God has called you will accelerate, and you will see explosive growth in this season.

God will use this explosion to clear the path before you in order to move you forward. July will be an explosive month where many will be propelled into work and stewardship of the explosion in their lives. We will need to move in the natural in response to the spiritual explosion. Get ready to throw your entire life into what God has called you to do.

This is a time to go after the things of God as never before. If you will get in the middle of what God is doing, July and the rest of 2020 will be a powerful season for the body of Christ! {eoa}
