

Prophetic Word: Revive and Come Alive Again

I would say to you, "Revive and come alive again.

The moment you believed in your heart and confessed Me as your Lord, I breathed into your spirit, My breath. And you became alive, born again.

But since then, you have allowed the cares of this world to darken your view. And the things you confessed that you once believed, you don't anymore.

My Spirit is calling out your name and is wooing you to revive and come alive again.

All it takes is a simple but heartfelt cry of repentance, and the dryness of your spirit will be hydrated and refreshed again.

I am very near to you; I have never walked away from you. I have been longing for you to return to Me. For I love you with an everlasting love. And I am for you, and never against you.

My Spirit is interceding for you to revive and come alive again.

Return to your first love. Forget not the day you were born from above, as you entered into the presence of My great love and the newness you experienced as I washed your sins away. How My joy overflowed within you as the heaviness of this world left you.

Forsake the ways of this world, and revive and come alive again.

Allow Me to exchange My beauty for your ashes. Give to Me all your disappointments and hurts, all that pain and suffering I bore upon My body so you could be free from it. Lay it all down at My feet and leave it there once and for all.

Let My healing virtue flow through you. Revive and come alive again.

My joy is your strength. And I gave you the medicinal benefits of laughter. Learn to smile and laugh again. Enjoy the simple, but all-important things in life that really do matter.

Allow My joy to revive you and come alive again.

Your mind has been wandering in the wilderness, and temptations have been overtaking you. The way to overcome is to submit to Me and My ways. Return to My Word, and your thoughts will be renewed, and victory over sin you will have.

Meditate in My Word, revive and come alive again.

The days are short, and soon you will hear that mighty trumpet blow. We will meet together in the air, and what a glorious day that will be.

But until then, now is the time to revive and come alive again.
