

Prophetic Word: The Lord Says 'I Am Not a Halfway Father'

Does the Father speak over us? Does He have a love language for us that radiates from heaven to encourage and strengthen us? I believe He does. The following writing is prophetically how I see the Father speaking over you. May you be encouraged and realize today His amazing love for you.

I never encounter you halfway!

I am not a halfway Father.

I didn't stumble onto our friendship.

I don't show up part way.

I'm a full out, full on, always there, ready to go Dad! I'm the real deal.

That's a great name—Real Deal.

You can call me Real Deal if you'd like.

No matter what you have seen before, whatever the distance of your earthly father, the pain he may have caused you, this is not me! Never believe these lies!

I am with you always.

I never encounter you halfway!

I am not a halfway Father.

I didn't stumble onto our friendship. I'm not a 100% Dad either.

I'm a 110 percenter!

I love that part of our relationship.

I remain more than 100% for you.

Today when you feel alone, even abandoned, maybe without hope or confused, longing for attention that no one seems able to satisfy, remember:

I never encounter you halfway!
I am not a halfway Father.
I didn't stumble onto our friendship.
I'm your guy!
I'm the Real Deal, a true 110 percenter!

Excerpted from the book, Love Notes From Dad. You can purchase on Amazon in print or eBook formats.

Listen to the full episode of New Era Explorers on the Charisma Podcast Network here. {ea}

Join Byron Easterling and receive exclusive content here.