

Prophetic Word: Your Season of Manifestation Is Coming

Recently, in a time of prayer, the Lord spoke to me about this being a season of manifestation for many people in the body of Christ. A manifestation is when the things that God has spoken to you come to pass.

These promises come through a prophetic word, a dream or just knowing a specific calling God has placed on your life and when these things come to pass, they are manifested!

Many people become frustrated when they have not sowed or prepared but still expect to receive the manifestation. A farmer never goes out into a field expecting to harvest tomatoes if he hasn't planted any tomato plants!

We can only expect a harvest from what we sow. A season is coming that will bring manifestation to the things that you have sown and prepared for. Get ready for the manifestation.

We can find ourselves stuck because we have not prepared ourselves to receive a manifestation. When you are positioned to steward the manifestation, that is when God will release it to you. God will never give something to us that we are not prepared for because He knows it will destroy us if we are not ready. I want to encourage you to prepare and properly position yourself to steward what God has promised you because the manifestation is coming!

In this season, take inventory of the things God has prophesied to you and the promises you need to be preparing for. I truly believe we are about to step into a season of great harvest and a season of promises being manifested.

There is nothing worse than being unprepared when the promise arrives. There is peace in knowing you are ready to steward what God has promised you. If we make ourselves ready now, when the harvest comes, then not a single part of the harvest will be lost.

God is looking for those who are diligent and those who steward well what they already have so that He can increase them. Look at the natural steps you can take in order to be ready for your manifestation when it comes. This is the season to develop well, become properly positioned and begin to prepare for the manifestation.

When the manifestation arrives, it is already too late to make yourself ready. So, prepare now for your season of manifestation, because it is coming! {eoa}
