

R. Loren Sandford Calls the Church to Fight the Fight of Faith

Here is an account my sister shared with me from a friend of hers in Michigan.

“Here is what just happened at the John James campaign. She was asked to be a poll challenger as they found 100,000 additional ballots (mysteriously).

“This is what she said happened. They (the Democrats) have it all blocked off at the TCF Center in Downtown Detroit.

“She said was afraid for her life as she and three others went into the hall to challenge the ballots and were met by protesters outside threatening them. When they went inside, people were feeding what appeared to be false ballots into an unauthorized machine, and the Dem workers complained to police when the poll challengers tried to take pictures. The police said to stop or they would be arrested for taking pictures. She and the other James campaign workers were escorted out.”

Since then, the testimony of her experience has been verified in at least one report on Fox News. That’s just one account. In Wisconsin, there were tens of thousands, maybe 100,000 more votes recorded than there were voters registered. In several states designated Republican, observers were barred from seeing even a single ballot envelope to verify its authenticity.

I’ve lost count of the reliable reports I’ve received of voter suppression and voter fraud perpetrated by Democrats. They range from discarded votes that were clearly valid to Republican observers being locked out of centers where votes are being counted. Overall, there is massive voter fraud going on.

My personal conviction is that the Democratic Party has been so desperate to get Trump out of office that any means, even illegal or criminal, will do. Russian collusion and impeachment failed. Now this.

Multiple lawsuits have been filed. It's likely that in the end the Supreme Court will be involved. So it's not over.

I did prophecy in 2015 that we would see levels of corruption revealed in our government that would rock the nation. Perhaps this is part of that and I pray, Bring it on, Lord. When the president ultimately wins, the Democrats will accuse him of stealing the election, but it's clear to me that it's the other way around.

In the midst of all this, I am deeply grieving the loss of my country. My heart is crushed.

I have completely lost faith in the nation that I was raised to believe in and respect. I don't know who we are anymore.

Debates that should have been about ideas have instead been about insults and accusations. Campaigns have been based on lies and attack ads. Voter fraud is rampant in multiple states.

Universities that once were places for healthy debate and exchange of ideas have become indoctrination centers where dissenting opinion is not tolerated. Schoolchildren are being taught biased and distorted history.

During this election cycle, families have broken up, and friends have parted ways in bitterness over differences of opinion about political parties and who to vote for.

As the outcome of the election drags on, Joe Biden calls for unity, but there will be no unity. Unity must be based on truth, and there is no truth, just a blinding blizzard of lies, voter fraud and deception designed to elicit emotional responses.

It's what Isaiah prophesied concerning Israel so long ago. "For our transgressions are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us. And as for our iniquities, we know them: transgressing, and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. Justice is turned backward, and righteousness stands far off; for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter" (Isa. 59:12-14).

We're drowning in lies, deception and corruption.

I'm deeply troubled that so much of the body of Christ seems to have had little discernment where demonic influence and deception are concerned during these recent months.

I see it in the eyes of political candidates. I feel it in their spirits. I hear it in their words. And a significant number of believers in Jesus seem not to understand the nature of the Lord we say we serve. I see the evidence of it in the hate that comes out of their mouths and the way they misinterpret and misapply Scripture to justify and defend that hate.

Thank God for His remnant, the passionate ones who have awakened during these months of crisis. Thank God for a growing number of people who care deeply about holiness and conformity to the image of the Son of God, and who seek intimacy with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

These coming weeks are perhaps the most important for our nation since the Civil War. The outcome of the election, which is still hanging in the balance, will determine the future of the nation for quite a while to come. So...

Pray urgently in authority.

Pray constantly in tongues if you can.

Your spirit with His Spirit will know what to pray much more than will your conscious mind. Even if you've not been released in that gift, and if you pray in English only, pray with authority. There are no second-class citizens in the kingdom of God based on the presence or absence of a spiritual gift. So pray!

The nation needs truth in our political process. Pray for exposure. Petition heaven for justice. Pray in authority rebuking the powers of darkness and the agents of corruption that have been moving to steal this election through voter fraud. Pray that the true vote comes to light.

I have prophesied a victory for the president, as has virtually every prophetic voice I respect. Since election night, I have faltered somewhat in confidence that I have heard accurately while a multitude of good people have exhorted me to stand on what I heard, encouraging me to trust that it was God.

I'm therefore choosing to stand in faith that the God of righteousness will establish this president who, regardless of his obvious flaws, stands for the unborn, for the church, for Jesus and for Israel. These are issues of paramount concern to the heart of God.

Rise up, remnant church! This is our hour!

Rise up in purity of devotion to our Lord!

Prepare to receive an unprecedented outpouring of the Holy Spirit! We don't need a president, a political party or a political system to walk in the power and love of the Lord Jesus Christ. Our King transcends all that!

No presidential candidate, political party or political philosophy will ever be our hope. These are earthly things that will pass away. What we have in Jesus is eternal. He is the same yesterday and forever. People have been and will be saved, healed and delivered in every nation on earth.

Just before ascending into heaven Jesus commanded that we make disciples of all nations—every people group. Don't you think it's time we raised our voices and effectively did just that?

Our nation needs us. Start with prayer in authority—aggressive authoritative prayer. Let evil be exposed. Let justice be done. Amen. {eoa}
