

Randy Travis Demonstrates Miracle-Working Power of God After Stroke That Left Him Speechless

Three years ago, a stroke stole the voice of famed country singer. This week, Randy Travis took back his musical legacy by praising God.

At his induction to the Country Music Hall of Fame, Travis stood up from his wheelchair and sang “Amazing Grace” to praise the Lord for all He has done.

“Randy stared death in the face, but death blinked,” Travis’ wife said. “Today, God’s proof of a miracle stands before you.”

Watch the video for yourself and taste and see what the Lord has done!