

Remember Dreaded Pop Quizzes? Here's One on 'President' Harris

As a young Catholic boy at Holy Cross Elementary school in Euclid, Ohio, there was only one thing I dreaded more than a well-deserved spanking. I sweated bullets on Sundays, anticipating Rev. Mother Sister Paulinus starting the week with a pop quiz, for which I was ill-prepared and regularly embarrassed. No star on the forehead for little Larry in first grade!

Can you relate?

With multitudes still experiencing shock and spinning heads at the lightning-speed withdrawal of Joe Biden and the instant plug-in of San Francisco liberal Kamala Harris, how about we play the pop quiz exercise? Let's run through an honest and documented test to see how much we really know about this progressive Democratic candidate for the most prestigious and powerful position on planet Earth: president of the United States of America.

The Bible instructs us to "test all things; hold fast what is good" (1 Thess. 5:21b, NKJV) so take 10 and give it a try.

Be careful and remember the cautionary definition that the prince of preachers, Charles Spurgeon, gave for discernment. "Discernment is not knowing the difference between right and wrong but rather the difference between right and almost right."
