

Report: Calls for Donald Trump's Assassination Erupt on Social Media

Liberals, socialists, progressives, statist and globalists have had a hard time dealing with the realization that on Jan. 20, 2017, Donald Trump will be sworn in as the 45th president of the United States.

But among the protests, walkouts and verbal tirades has been something much more dangerous. According to a report by The Daily Caller, social media is beginning to see a surge in calls for Trump to be assassinated.

David Hookstead's report states:

Twitter is exploding with people calling for president-elect Donald Trump to be assassinated.

The Republican real-estate billionaire beat Hillary Clinton handily to become the next president of the United States, but that hasn't stopped lots of people calling for somebody to murder him.

As the report also notes, threats against the life of the president—or president-elect—are usually investigated by the Secret Service. It has not yet responded to the recent surge in threats against Trump's life.
