

Rev. Franklin Graham Shares the One Truth That Can Change Your Life Today

The weight people carry has become impossible to ignore. Anxiety lingers, exhaustion settles in and past mistakes refuse to stay buried. Many are searching for something real, something that actually lifts the burden instead of masking it.

In a short but direct message, Rev. Franklin Graham speaks straight into that reality and points to the only place where rest is found.

"Hello, I'm Franklin Graham. Jesus said, 'come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I'll give you rest.' Maybe you've been burdened by the the sins of your life and the mistakes and you just would love to have rest for your soul. Well, I want you to know that God loves you. He made you. He created you. And he sent his son, Jesus Christ, from heaven to this earth to take your sins. That's right. He took your sins to the cross. He died and shed his blood on a cross and he was buried. But on the third day, God raised Him to life. And if we are willing to repent, turn from our sins, tell God that we're sorry, and by faith believe on Jesus Christ and invite him to come into our hearts to take control of our life, God will forgive us and cleanse us. And you can have a new life, a new beginning starting today, right now. Invite him to come into your heart."
