

Revivalist: God Supernaturally Healed Me of Shame After I Paid for an Abortion at 19

One of the greatest issues in our world today is the atrocity of legalized abortion. The Lord's heart is burning to put an end to this evil. And in the meantime, He is passionately pursuing the hearts of His lost children who are drowning in guilt and shame for having an abortion. In Christ, there is physical and emotional healing from abortion trauma.

Often, when you think of people who are suffering in regard to this topic, women and children are the first ones to pop into your thoughts. Women are also the most vocal in terms of this vital and relevant issue. Michael Lombardo is one of the exceptions in that he paid for the abortion of his child when he was 19 years old and suffered with lingering shame and pain because of it.

Michael is extremely vocal in declaring freedom and life to men and women who have subjected themselves to the darkness of abortion, which he unashamedly calls "murder." The first five years of being saved, he has encountered the Lord in supernatural, life-altering ways that have empowered him out of shame into total freedom and hope regarding his child. "I walked out of that encounter with my heavenly Father free from all shame and filled with heavenly hope." On his latest episode of Awaken Podcast, you will hear about three dramatic encounters Michael had with the Lord that catapulted him into utter freedom and truth. Don't miss it!
