

Rick Joyner Says He Had a Vision of Priebus 'Leaking'

A peculiar vision so distressed prophet Rick Joyner that he could not sleep.

"I saw some things going on in the White House," Joyner shares in a recent Facebook live video. "[I] trust those of you who perceive this as prophetic and take it that way are praying, interceding and doing whatever you can."

Joyner says he saw Chief-of-Staff Reince Priebus "leaking."

"He was caught by a trap that was set up to catch him, and he just fell right into it."
