

Rick Joyner: We Are Somewhere Near the End

Many herald the days we live in as the end of time, especially as believers interpret prophecies given by everyone from John to Jesus.

But are we missing something?

Yes, says prophetic voice Rick Joyner, who re-evaluates the end times in his new book.

“I really didn’t do the math. I got a lot of it from the church fathers and all,” Joyner tells Jim Bakker. “But I, you know, it’s clear in some of their writings, the early church fathers were the direct disciples of the first disciples of Jesus.”

Specifically, Joyner’s referring to Polycarp and Ireneas, disciples of John, who Joyner says knew the interpretation of John’s Revelation.
