

Seek a Moment of Humility Each Day

There is one thing every true believer longs for each day. That's to be so overwhelmed by the real presence of Almighty God that we feel His life pulsating within us.

Begin each day by telling God how much you need Him, how much you love Him, how much you long for His touch. Invite the Holy Spirit to fill you. Ask Him to speak to your heart; then pensively read His Word. Keep seeking until you experience "a moment of humility" in which you are suddenly overwhelmed by His power & presence.

It may come as joy that slowly swells, a deep conviction of sin that hurls you to the floor, a holy passion to serve Him with all your might, or feeling transported into the spiritual realms.

You may tingle. Your breathing may be labored. You may feel moisture in your eyes. It is a moment of transcendence, awe, & communion.

To not experience God is our choice, not His. God keeps an open door policy.
