

Seek the Holy Spirit in Your Silence

Many people do not know how to handle silence because it feels so awkward. But it is only awkward when you do not know the person. There is a beautiful holy silence after worship time where, if you are sensitive to the Holy Spirit, you will feel the tangible presence of God.

I have known the Spirit as powerful, demonstrative and full of manifestations and power, but I have also known a beautiful deep secrecy within the silence.

This morning as I was sitting before the Lord before the livestream of our service, the thought of holy silence with the Lord overwhelmed me. I felt as though I did not want to talk but just be in His presence. In the beauty of the silence, so many deep revelations are revealed.
