

SEPTEMBER 2012: Viral Faith

IN THIS ISSUE ...

Viral Faith Ross Rhode writes how discipleship and the supernatural are a natural expression of a contagious follower of Jesus.

Manila's Mega-Move Victory Church in the Philippines has grown almost 25 percent each year for the last 12 years using the simple, “small” concept of discipleship.

Small Is the New Big Whether it's called house church, organic church, small church or simple church, the growing movement of home-based gatherings across the U.S. is as diverse as its labels. We asked a leading voice in the movement to make sense of the organic growth.

The Harvest Amid the Storm National economist and political adviser Marc Nuttle explains why Christians must prepare for an imminent economic disaster that could cripple our nation.

Unconditionally True Known as “Papa Joe” to the hundreds of inner-city families he helps through his ministry, Joe Bradford has a powerful testimony that reads like a movie. This month, his story comes to the big screen with the major release, Unconditional—via the unlikeliest of moviemaking teams.
