

September 2013: Saving America

- Don't believe America's in crisis? Tell that to evangelistic giants Billy Graham and Reinhard Bonnke, who, along with other evangelists, are focusing on America's spiritual salvation like never before.
- How Christians' response to Muslims is creating a major crisis inside and outside the church
- As His free gift to us, grace gives us access to God's power for everything we need in life. But amid the current-day distortions surrounding grace, it's crucial we get a true revelation of this undeserved favor of God.
- Luis Reyes remembers running the streets at night for fear of losing his life if he returned home. Yet today God is using his journey to create a safe place for thousands of children, giving them a hope they never knew could be theirs.
- The Old Testament's accounts of idolatry aren't so old in light of the idols Americans worship today. Is there hope for tearing these down and avoiding God's judgment?
