

Shapeshifters, UFOs and Bibles: Dark Secrets You Must Know!

What if shapeshifters and UFOs really do play a bigger role in our society than we might think?

In an interview on SkyWatchTV, author L.A. Marzulli shed light on the truth of the spiritual battle happening behind the scenes of our everyday lives.

Marzulli discussed the reality of the seed war, which is found in Genesis 3:15, foretelling the enmity between the offspring of the woman and the offspring of the serpent. He connects this prophecy to the ancient accounts of Nephilim in Genesis 6 and to the current-day abduction phenomena. This lack of understanding, he believes, has left the church vulnerable to deception as the days of Noah approach once again.

Marzulli believes we are now seeing the manifestation of these hybrid entities in the form of UFO sightings, abductions, and shapeshifting beings. He points to the prophecy in Daniel 2:43, where it’s stated that “their seed will mingle with the seed of men,” indicating the mixing of human and non-human genetics—a theme he believes is being fulfilled today through modern alien abduction phenomena.

Marzulli not only understands the concept of shapeshifters and UFOs from a distance, but he heard countless stories of people who have been impacted by these nefarious creatures. One particularly unsettling encounter involved a woman with strange, almost reptilian eyes who revealed her true form before laughing maniacally, sending her victim into a panic.

This phenomenon, Marzulli suggests, is a manifestation of the demonic forces at play in the world today—forces that are using abductions, deception and manipulation to lead humanity astray.

Author Katie Souza can also testify to the fact that these shapeshifters are real after she personally was chased by a werewolf.

“He chases us up the hill,” Souza said to Charisma. “I looked out and he’s hanging out the window, and he’s already morphing [into a werewolf].”

Regardless of whether or not UFOs, shapeshifting werewolves or other entities sound bizarre, it does not change the reality of their existence. For Marzulli, the rise in UFO sightings and abduction experiences is not just a matter of alien life—it’s the culmination of biblical prophecy. He believes that Jesus’ warning that the end times would be like the days of Noah points directly to the return of these hybrid entities, who once again seek to corrupt the human race.

As the world faces increasing reports of UFO sightings, shapeshifting entities, and unexplained phenomena, L.A. Marzulli’s insights offer a sobering reminder: what’s happening in the physical realm is often rooted in the spiritual battle between good and evil. For believers, the question remains: Are we ready for what’s to come?
