

Sharon Osbourne Speaks Out After Husband Ozzy Osbourne's Shocking Death

Sharon Osbourne has finally made a statement following the passing of her legendary rock star husband, Ozzy Osbourne.

Ozzy Osbourne passed away on July 22, 2025 at the age of 76. Since then, Sharon Osbourne has made a couple of simple, but endearing statements to those who have paid tribute to her late husband.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

According to LAD Bible, Sharon commented on a video from Radio 1 DJ Jack Saunders, stating, "Jack thank you for your tribute to Ozzy tonight. Bless you."

To order Jonathan Cahn's new book, The Avatar, visit .

Both ENews and Men's Journal also note that Osbourne commented on a tribute by Gavin Rossdale saying, "Bless you."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

In an official statement by the Osbourne family on Tuesday, the Black Sabbath co-founder's death was confirmed.

"“It is with more sadness than mere words can convey that we have to report that our beloved Ozzy Osbourne has passed away this morning. He was with his family and surrounded by love. We ask everyone to respect our family privacy at this time.”"

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

While known as the “Prince of Darkness,” Osbourne made claims to Christianity, telling the New York Times back in 1992 he was “a practicing member of the Church of England.” He also later told The Guardian in 2014 that he was a Christian and was “christened as a Christian.” Osbourne also stood behind Israel as Sharon is of Jewish descent.

Continue to pray for the Osbourne family as they grieve their loss at this time.

Prepared by Charisma Media Staff.