

Shocking Vision Signals a New 'Golden Era'

In a powerful new prophetic message, Pastor Mike Thompson shares a vision from the Lord that speaks directly to this pivotal moment in our nation's history. With the inauguration of President Donald Trump as the 47th president of the United States, the prayers of the faithful have been answered—but this is just the beginning.

Prophet Mike Thompson recently shared three dates with great spiritual significance behind them: Nov. 5, 2024, which was election day; Jan. 6, 2025, the certification date of the election; and inauguration day, Jan. 20, 2025. Now, Thompson is sharing about a vision he had which detailed the era we are about to walk into.

The body of Christ, as Thompson shares, is now called to move from a season of resistance to a season of reigning, as we step into radical faith, evangelism and prosperity.

Thompson says the Holy Spirit took him into a vision where he saw a soldier standing in full armor, reminiscent of the apostle Paul's description of the armor of God. This warrior held a bow in his hand, lifted it toward the sun and let an arrow fly. As the arrow soared and landed, the soldier marked his starting point, walked to where the arrow had fallen and claimed that ground as his own.

"The Lord spoke to me and He said, 'Like the soldier who shoots his arrow to determine how much land to claim, raise your faith to see how much you can believe for. Let your faith fly and the Holy Spirit will guide it in flight,'" Thompson says.

"We've talked a lot about taking our country back. Well, it happened," he continues. "But when that happened on inauguration day, there was a great release in the spirit kind of like this arrow and this release was now not to just resist but to reign. To rule. We're not taking back America; we're going beyond that. There is a great time right now of, I would say, radical evangelism and prosperity that is sweeping our nation and because of that, it's also sweeping around the world."

He reveals that the Lord has given the church a four-year window—coinciding with Trump's presidency—to establish strong foundations, both spiritually and financially. This is a time of preparation and increase, where God's people must rise up, believe big and act boldly.

"We have four years to build the foundation and the framework of our spiritual and our financial lives," Thompson warns.

As with all prophetic visions and dreams, we must take what Thompson has shared, and press in to the Lord in all prayer and supplication, seeing where we can seize the opportunities the Lord has for His people over the course of these next few years.
