

Songwriter Meredith Andrews Turns Vision of Heaven Into Glorious Worship

You work in signs and wonders/ Your voice is light and thunder/ Your glory burns in every star/ You flood the earth with beauty/ I see You all around me/ Oh God how wonderful You are, so I...

Fall down with a million saints/ Lift up my hands and say/ You're holy, holy/ Join in with the ancient song/ Heaven and earth respond/ You're holy, holy.

So go the lyrics to Meredith Andrew's "A Million Saints," recorded live in Nashville for her EP, Faith and Wonder.

"Even when I sing this song, I get this picture of millions of people around the throne, just lifting up their voices and singing before the Lord," Andrews shares with C-Pop, the Christian pop culture podcast.

"And the thing is like, 'That's where we're going. That's where we're headed. That's what our eternal destination will be.'

"But what's amazing is that it is happening now. We just don't have that full picture yet. But it's actually happening, and I just love to stand back and just think of this global church, the church as a whole, you know, the church around the world that God loves, that Jesus died for."

Andrews shares more of her heart in the interview below. Check it out!