

Spiritual Keys to Become the Warrior God Made You to Be

Distractions come in various ways. Often they seem loud and chaotic. I see why horseback riders put blinders on horses. Blinders help keep horses focused. I would like to think that if we kept Jesus in our view and focused on Him, this would operate as blinders for us against the enemy's distractions.

Distractions are meant to take us off course. We begin to doubt and disbelieve Gods promises. This is actually were the devil wants us. We must mature in the knowledge of God and believe His report always.

Distractions can come as pain in the body, believe God no matter what. Distractions can come through your children acting up, believe the report of the Lord. Distractions can come in a form of a bill, but trust God will provide.

How do we keep God in front view of our lives? Read His Word daily, pray and fast regularly. Take authority against the enemy through the blood of Jesus Christ. You have been given power to trample over serpents and scorpions (Luke 10:19). Through the blood of Yeshua, we win!

Transform your way of thinking. Become the warrior God created you to be. When distractions come along, remember this is a test. God is testing your faith. You exercising your faith is you being focused on God. Remain in Him and live victoriously, in Jesus Name. {eoa}
