

Spiritual Warfare Secrets: Pressing Through to Your Breakthrough

We all have a desire for a breakthrough. We have put up with the way things have been for long enough. Doubt and unbelief happen when we have desired breakthrough and have not seen the manifestation. We get discouraged and even jealous of people who have experienced a breakthrough when we haven't.

Our spiritual walk never promised to be easy. Demons have roamed the earth, plaguing us with afflictions and infirmities. However, Jesus gives us authority over all these ailments and entities. Are you taking the authority He has given you? Do you know how to press through for your breakthrough?

Pressing through for your breakthrough involves doing certain things and taking specific actions. But when you are discouraged, how do you find the fight within you to do such things? I look back at Jesus and His long walk to the cross. I say, "If Jesus pressed through to the cross and didn't give up, then I can't give up. If I don't press through, then what I am saying is that what He did meant nothing, because I didn't receive it." What keeps you focused on pressing through in your spiritual walk? I want to stir you to action, ignite you with the fire of God and give you the courage, strength and stamina to fight again.

In this prophetic episode led by the Holy Spirit, receive the instructions and directions He gives to assist you with pressing through to your breakthrough.
