

Spiritually Dangerous TV Land Programs Deceiving Viewers

Angel From Hell has been canceled after only five episodes! One Million Moms voiced concern over this spiritually dangerous program and a lack of sponsorship played a major role in the show's cancellation. For example, Capital One, the sponsor One Million Moms previously contacted, stopped supporting the program Angel From Hell. Their ads were not present during the last four episodes.

You are making a HUGE difference! Let's keep it up!

In addition, Red Lobster, the sponsor One Million Moms previously contacted, is no longer supporting the program Younger. Their ads were not present during the last several episodes.

Sadly, this disgusting program continues to air on Wednesday nights at 10:00 p.m. ET/9:00 p.m. CT. The previews air much earlier in the evening when children are likely watching TV.

TV Land network describes the show in these words: Younger follows 40-year-old Liza, a suddenly single mother who tries to get back into the working world, only to find out it's nearly impossible to start at the bottom at her age. When a chance encounter with a 20-something guy at a bar convinces her she looks younger than she is, Liza tries to pass herself off as a 26-year-old not only to land her dream job but also to date a much younger guy.

It is almost impossible to describe the depth of depravity found in the TV Land sitcom Younger. Every scene is filled with sexual innuendos, implications or encounters. It is impossible to list them all, so here are a few scenes from this TV-14-DLS rated show:

- Pixelated nudity
- Drug use
- Graphic bedroom scenes
- Excessive alcohol consumption
- Homosexual attraction
- Sex party

This comedy is anything but funny!

Please use the information we have provided to contact Wrigley and Mars Inc. and ask that they pull their financial support from Younger.
