

Spiritually Happy Men Are Always a Part of This

Most of us have heard someone say, and many of us have said ourselves, “I know I should be more committed, but I just don’t feel challenged and inspired by church.

“Besides, I’m getting everything I need in my small group.”

Apparently one of Satan’s most effective strategies is simply to entice men to stop going to church. What would it take for us to fully understand and truly believe that we’ll never lead a spiritually happy life until we’re part of a church? Join us and find out the answer.

The Big Idea: Don’t be estranged from your Father because a few siblings let you down.
