

Spring Break Turns Into Revival, Baptisms in the Ocean in Cancun

This month, dozens of Christians shared the Gospel with tourists and locals in Cancun and Playa del Carmen, Mexico. What happened there is amazing.

Outreach leader Scott Langemeir told CBN News about the testimonies of how God moved on people's hearts to find new life in Christ as 48 people from Latin America, the United States, and Europe took part in "Reach Cancun."

The outreach team ministered to staff and guests at their hotel, leading to many opportunities to share the message of salvation.

Langemeir told one testimony about a man he shared Jesus with. "He shared with me how his mother had recently died because of alcoholism... And in the middle of our conversation, he took his beer, he dumped it all out on the beach and said he wants to give his life to Jesus."
