

Stick to This Battle Plan if You've Been Scarred by Jezebel

If you feel like you have lost your sense of spiritual confidence and the authority you previously walked in as a believer, Dr. Michael Brown says God has a distinct battle plan for you.

Brown says believers must examine their own lives to determine whether they've been scarred by the Jezebel spirit or if they're walking under the influence of Jezebel. If you recognize you are under demonic assault, then there is a way to free yourself.

"We know from the Bible that Jezebel was associated with idolatry. She was a pagan princess who married the king of Israel," Dr. Brown told Dr. Steve Greene on a recent episode of "Greenelines" on the Charisma Podcast Network. "We know that she's associated with sexual immorality and seduction. We know that she was a murderer. We know that she silenced the prophets, that she emasculated men and that she's associated with witchcraft. So, you put these things together, and you see what's happening in our society today."

But there is a way out.

"Have you become intimidated by fear and paralyzed, where you're afraid to step out? Have you become enslaved to sexual immorality, and you don't know your way out? Look at your own life," Brown told "Go to God and begin to meditate on verses about God being with you, about God being in you."

"Begin to meditate on verses about 'fear not, because I'm with you.' We must cast out fear if we're going to defeat Jezebel. Let us isolate the problem; let us focus on the problem; let us find victory in Jesus over the problem.”
