

Stop Hiding From Your Prophetic Calling

Have you ever argued with God about the call He has on your life? I know I have. I ran from my prophetic calling because I had seen the prophetic distorted and used as Christian witchcraft. I didn't want any part of being prophetic, but God kept chasing me. Isn't that like our God, to chase us when we are running? Let me tell you something; His track shoes are faster than yours and no matter how long and fast you run, God is going to catch up to you. I know He did me, and I am very grateful He did.

What prophecies or words from God aren't you activating? How are you being distracted and delaying your destiny? I know people want to see the manifestation of their prophetic words more than most anything else. However, when we are running and not doing our part to pull them forth, we can't see the manifestation. Remember, the Bible says, "prophecy is in part" (1 Cor. 13:9). What part are you playing to manifest your prophecy?

Stop running from God. He has a plan for you. Repent and break agreement with rebellion, control, fear of the unknown and believing your ways are better than His. In this episode, find the freedom and empowerment to stop running from God and begin releasing your destiny.

Listen to my latest podcast to learn more.