

Surrender: Experience the Abundant Life of Christ

“Surrender” is not a popular word in many Christian circles today, but it is necessary.

If we as believers want to experience the abundant life that Jesus promised us, we should embrace the beauty and power of surrendering our lives and wills to Him. This is not a one-time event but a daily yielding of our hearts, minds and plans to the King of glory.

Surrendering to Him is the greatest act of humility we can show our Creator. Mighty grace is released when we humble ourselves before God.
