

T.D. Jakes Reveals His Biggest Fears and Frustrations

He's one of the most well-known pastors in America. But how much do most people really know about Bishop T.D. Jakes?

He recently spoke with CBN News about a number of issues, including what he called "social media vigilantes" who misrepresent the faith.

"I hate that we're not more loving and more gentle in how we present Christ to people—that sometimes people think that the more rude they are, the more spiritual they are," Bishop Jakes said.

"We have social media vigilantes who are out there killing other Christians in the name of the Lord in a way that does not represent Christ. Those things really trouble me," he added.

Bishop T.D. Jakes shared more about his fears, frustrations, and hope for the future with CBN News Anchor John Jessup.
